Howden Axial Fans

Spares and aftermarket services for industrial fans

High-quality spares and excellent aftermarket services for almost every industrial fan on the market.

Quality spare parts and aftermarket care is essential for the performance of your industrial fans. Howden offers aftermarket services for all major industrial fan brands in the Nordic countries including legacy brands like ABB, Svenska Fläktfabriken, Fläkt Woods, and Fläkt Industri.

Spares and service for industrial fans

Howden serves the industrial fan market in the Nordic counties. For over 160 years our equipment has been used to underpin everyday life throughout the world, and we have supplied innovative fan solutions to a range of industries:

- Chemical
- Pulp and paper
- Mining
- Waste incineration
- Nuclear
- Petrochemical
- Power

Our proven track record, engineering skills, and dedicated team guarantee the optimum support for you and your process equipment.

Commitment to expert support

All of our services come with a commitment to expert support. We can keep your fan running to specification, introduce upgrades and enhancements that enable it to benefit from recent technological developments, or we can adapt it to meet new operating conditions.

Solutions for all industrial fans – regardless of OEM manufacturer

We offer spares, services and retrofit solutions to our own fan range and to fans from other OEM fan suppliers. Regardless of the OEM manufacturer, we can support you with the spares and service you need.

Some of the fans we can support you with are:

- Svenska Fläktfabriken
- Fläkt Woods
- Fläkt Industri
- ABB Fläkt Industri
- ABB Ventilation Produkts
- Solyvent fans
- Howden fans

Because of our knowledge and experience, we can support you with all aspects of your fan equipment, and we offer quick delivery and service to ensure your fan is up and running as quickly as possible.
